A job share arrangement is not intended as a means to increase or decrease workload. It is expected that the regular workload for the position will be maintained. Job sharing is intended to allow a permanent employee to work less than regular full-time hours in their position while maintaining status as a permanent employee. It is intended to better accommodate the hours of work of the employee to their personal needs where this is operationally feasible as determined by the employer.

12.03 Temporary Position

The other portion of a job share arrangement is filled with a temporary employee who is subject to all of the rights and privileges of temporary employees. The term of the temporary employee is open ended and ends when the permanent job holder terminates the job share arrangement. If the temporary employee resigns/retires from the job share, the temporary position shall be posted.

12.04 Hours of Work

The incumbents of a job share arrangement shall work the hours that would be equivalent of the position of the job holder (generally a full time position). If an employee in a job share desires to work extra hours in a job other than their own, they may do so provided that their combined hours are equal to or less than that of a full time position and that it is agreeable to their out-of-scope supervisor.

12.05 Rate of Pay

Any hours worked in a job share shall be at the regular rates of pay for the position being shared except as provided in Article 18 (Overtime).

12.06 Terminating a Job Share

Upon a minimum of two (2) weeks written notice the permanent job holder, the union or the employer may terminate the job share arrangement.

12.07 Posting of a Job Share

When a job share arrangement is established or becomes vacant the Employer will staff the temporary position as quickly as possible through the regular posting process.
